Upland Case

Welfare Fraud Puts Mom In Jail

An Upland mother of five has been denied probation and sentenced to State Prison after admitting she bilked $6,042 in welfare aid while being supported by her common-law husband.

Frances Williams, 40, of 796 Guadelupe Drive, was sentenced Nov. 20 to a 1-to-10 year term by Superior Court Judge John W. Kerrigan.

The defense pleaded for leniency and said she was not "suited for prison."

Deputy Dist. Atty. Tobert A. Estes charged that the woman illegally received $278 a month for two and one-half years while living with a California Youth Authority counselor as his common-law wife.

The prosecution said the counselor had a take-home pay of $500 a month, used to support the family, while the woman had used part of the welfare aid to hire a maid.

Deputy Public Defender John F. Ingro argued there was no question about her guilt, but the element of punishment was another matter.

"Rehabilitation is still the primary role of society — not punishment," Ingro told the court as he pleaded for probation.

He pointed out that it was the woman's first offense, and questioned what the fate of her children would be if she were sent to prison.

Ingro implied that the court may have sentenced the woman to prison as an example to deter further welfare fraud. He said that the recent welfare probe in San Bernardino County was highly overemphasized by the press and the prosecution, and that a prison sentence for Frances Williams would not prove as a deterrent.

"Governor Brown said today (Nov. 20) that only five cents of every dollar from the taxpayer goes into welfare funds," he said.

"There is not an exhorbitant amount of welfare fraud as some would like to indicate," Ingro said, "and there are statistics to prove it. Publicity is fine, but it's no deterrent to future cases."

The defendant's attorney claimed that the $6,042 welfare fraud figure was also an exaggeration.

"The defense is saying you will attempt to prosecute the defendant as an example," Estes told Judge Kerrigan.

"The $6,042 figure was corroborated by her common-law husband. The figure is fact," the prosecution said.

Estes commented on the defendant's character: "This woman has lived with six men and bore seven children, five of the kids which are now in her custody. We don't know where the other two are."

Estes said the investigation of the case revealed the woman had an alcoholic problem.

Estes restated that the fraud existed for 26 months, from December 1961 to June 1964. The mother married the CYA counselor a month ago.

Judge Kerrigan listened quietly to both counsels, then said, "In this kind of case, I worry about where to draw the line. No one likes to impose sentence on a mother of five children.

"Here is a case where the amount of overpayment exceeded estimates of $6,042, even though the defense disputes the figure. Whatever it might have been, it is substantial.

"I personally feel a person suspected of being involved in welfare fraud should be told that, if apprehended, he or she will go to jail."

Kerrigan almost apologetically said he had no alernative, and that society must be protected.

FREEWAY DESERVES THANKS AT THANKSGIVING — in fact, the heavily trafficked San Bernardino artery is only one of many blessings shared by Foothill area residents (for nine more, and our reasons for listing 10 at this holiday time, please turn to THE NEWS editorial on page B2). Photo was taken from the Sultana Ave. overpass, looking westward toward the Euclid Ave. exit. The Freeway was busy, per usual, but the growing homes and north of it were protected, and the prospering people had reason to be thankful.

AL Land Is OK'd For Zone Change

Zoning for intense business use of eight acres at the northeast corner of the Base Line-Carnelian Ave. intersection, Alta Loma, was cleared Nov. 23 by the County Board of Supervisors, against the recommendaton of the County Planning Commission.

The applicant for the zoning was Ontario Savings and Loan Association. The eight acres are half of a parcel the company has been seeking business zoning for since early this year. Each time, the Planning Commission has turned down the request.

Monday's action by Supervisors was taken as the result of an appeal by Charles Latimer, president of Ontario Savings and Loan, for a reversal of the Commission's recommendation. Latimer had appeared before the Board a week earlier, and a delay in a decision at that time was voted at the request of Supervisor Daniel Mikesell, who represents the area.

This week, Mikesell reported that he had "discussed this matter with quite a few people in the area, and found no major objections." The Supervisor said the type of development planned would benefit the area.

The recommendation of denial for the change of zone was based by the Commission on its failure to conform to the master plan for the Chaffey College area, and Mikesell's first motion Monday was for the Commission to hold a hearing and change the master plan for this parcel of land. His motion carried unanimously.

Secondly, Mikesell moved for a Planning Commission study of a proposal that the front 200 feet of the land, facing Base Line, be zoned for parking for a distance of about 500 feet east from Carnelian. The land just behind, he directed, should be considered

Thanksgiving Day---1964

In the United States of America, November traditionally is the month of Thanksgiving. It is the time especially set aside to give thanks to our bountiful, loving, all-providing Father-God.

It is the time set aside to look appreciatively at our many blessings. It is the time set aside to give thanks for all the things we usually take for granted.

Thanksgiving quickens a new spirit of appreciation within us. Thanksgiving creates joy. Thanksgiving builds faith. Thanksgiving for our blessings never fails to open the way for more good. Thanksgiving sets in motion an endless cycle of good that enriches us in mind and body.

Let us make this an unforgettable day of Thanksgiving. Let us give thanks for peace, life, family and friends. Let us give thanks to God for the glorious world in which we live. Let us give thanks for our blessings great and small. Let us say, "Thank You, God, for everything."—The Daily Word.

Upland Homeowners Demand Civic Center Reappraisal

Members of the Upland Homeowners League met Monday evening, Nov. 23, at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Patricia Wilder, to discuss the proposed Upland Civc Center.

Deliberations of the group were culminated in the following questions, which are hereby offered in "open letter" form for consideration by the City Council and the people of Upland:

1. Wouldn't the building plan presently advocated by the Cy Council raise the tax rate beyond practical limits and therefore:

discourage future business and residential investment?

—limit development of other civic projects, such as Euclid Ave. Parkway, needed branch fire stations, recreational facilities, etc.?

—burden taxpayers to excess immediately, and then get progressively worse as the City grows?

2. For the immediate future, wouldn't acquisition of suitable property in conjunction with the partial development of a reasonably financed, sensible, long-term plan of development be more effective in encouraging future investments in our city?

4. Shouldn't expansion, through a series of steps, therefore be re-evaluated and seriously considered?

4. Has a practical maximum tax ceiling for Upland been consdered or determined?

5. Wouldn't inclusion of the 100-foot strip along Arrow Highway, as earlier proposed, but deleted on Nov. 17 by the Council, greatly enhance this site, which would then be located on two major thoroughfares?

—(Does the current appraisal of this strip consider anticipated widening of Arrow Highway?)

—(Why couldn't this strip be leased out by the city to provide income until it was needed for development?)

6. Have the possibilities of underground and above-ground parking, as well as multi-story building, been adequately explored?

7. Isn't the artist's present proposal a rather discouraging misuse of the beautiful and expensive Euclid Ave. frontage?

8. Does the present plan provide flexibility in the utilization of building and ground space?

9. Shouldn't visible development of the downtown business area be a major criterion in conjunction with the development of the Civic enter?

10. Have members of the City Council seriously evaluated the possibility that the citizens of the City of Upland may not be able or willing to bear the required financial burden of such a massive project? Is it not possible that plans for immediate expansion of all needed civic facilities are inappropriate at the present time, and that the long-term needs of the public as well as the civil employees may better be met through a more realistc approach in the planning and timing of this entire project?

Trash Must Go— But A Day Later

The City of Upland has announced that its sanitation workers, along with all but emergency-status municipal employees, will enjoy a day away from their chores on Thanksgiving.

Thus, commercial and residential refuse wil not be picked up Thursday, Nov. 26. The regular Thursday routes will be serviced by the rejuvenated workers the following day, Friday, Nov. 27.

Chamber Board To Hear About Junior Program

The possibility of establishing a Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Junior Achievement Program in Foothill area high schools will be explored at the next meeting of the Upland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

That meeting is scheduled for 8 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 1, at the Upland Inn, according to Chamber Mgr. Floyd Taylor.

Taylor said guest speaker at the session will be Ralph Prime, coordinator for the junior achievement work throughout Southern California.

Merchants Must Jingle Yule Cash

If Upland is to be decorated for Christmas, a number of local merchants are going to have to contribute $25 apiece to the cause.

That's a conclusion Jack Atwood pointed out at a meeting Nov. 24 of the Retail Merchants Association.

He said the $25 minimum fee for Chamber of Commerce membership won't cover decoration costs, which ran to $700 last year, and those who "haven't supported the program" will be asked to donate.

At the same meeting, the group agreed to open stores in the evenings for Christmas shoppers starting Dec. 4, to begin an immediate program to attract holiday shoppers to the area, to nominate officers for the next year, and to formulate a clear plan for the long-range Upland beautification program.

Architect Andy Barmakian showed slides and discussed ways merchants can put new faces on their business buildings.

He said a special style of architecture is not necessary as long as there is an overall theme. Dwight Bert, president of the Chamber, said that a clear plan plus response of merchants and owners is needed for a beautification program to be successful.

Alta Loma Youth, 15, Dies In Post-Game Auto Crash

Homeward-bound just before midnight Nov. 20, after enjoying the annual Mom's and Dad's Night football game at Alta Loma High School, two teen-agers were trapped in a high-speed, single-vehicle auto crash which killed one of them, a 15-year-old Alta Loma boy.

The youth, Wayne Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones, 7289 Amethyst St., died of head injuries at 4:40 p.m. the next day at San Antonio Community Hospital.

Funeral services for the ALHS sophomore, who moved to this area with his family a decade ago, were held Nov. 24 at Richardson-Peterson Mortuary Chapel, with the Rev. J. Keith Whitford, pastor of the Alta Loma Community Church, officiating. Entombment followed at Bellevue Mausoleum.

California Highway Patrol officers said Janet Marigene Smith, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winn L. Smith, 7536 Alta Cuesta, Red Hill, was driving her parents' 1957 station wagon on Highland Avenue at an excessive rate of speed. They said she apparently lost control of the vehicle as it bounced across a dip at Sapphire Street.

According to an investigative report filed by Officer Robert Ullom of the CHP's San Bernardino unit, the station wagon rolled more than three times. He indicated that the girl's statements led him to believe she was thrown through the vehicle's windshield and her companion was thrown out the right front door.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the ALHS senior, who is editor of the Teepee Times, student newspaper, told THE NEWS her daughter had at first said she was driving "to protect Wayne, who was too young to have a license."

Later, Mrs. Smith said, her daughter admitted she had permitted her friend to drive to and from the game, "because he was so insistent."

Miss Smith also was rushed to the hospital, where she was treated for severely bruised knees and multiple cuts. She was released in her mother's care Nov. 24.

The Smiths' foreign-built station wagon was totally demolished.

As THE NEWS went to press, Officer John DeSilva said "the case is still under investigation." Miss Smith remains cited for driving at an excessive speed and Juvenile Court is still considering vehicular manslaughter charges against the girl, the patrolman said, "but further investigation of the physical evidence at the scene and interviews with other students who may have seen them leaving the game could change the whole thing."

DeSilva pointed out that Miss Smith originally told Ullom she was the driver, and the only other person involved is now dead, so only additional investigation can alter the official CHP report.

In addition to his parents, the dead youngster is survived by a sister, Jennie, and three brothers, Larry, Billy and Jerry, all of Alta Loma.

Dead Youngster Had Premonition

"There ought to be an overpass over that highway near our school," 15-year-old Michael A. Kruce told his father, an Upland manufacturer, several weeks ago. "The State probably won't put one in until one of us is killed."

Funeral services for young Mike, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben A. Kruce of Pomona, were held last Saturday, Nov. 21, in odd Memorial Chapel, Pomona. Interment followed in Pomona Cemetery.

The youth, a first-year student at Newbury Park Academy in Ventura County, was killed Nov. 18 while crossing the busy highway which he had previously mentioned to his father. Witnesses said it was almost 6 p.m. when the boy was struck by an auto—an auto being operated at that hour with no lights on.

In addition to his parents, the teen-ager is survived by a sister, Mrs. Carol Ann Staggs. His father is the owner of Futurus Inc., 1076 W. 9th St., Upland.

Can Firm's Fire 'Burns' Green, But It's No Pre-Christmas Gift

A DECADE SHY OF 100 is Mrs. Margret Croney of 732 N. First Ave., Upland, who marked her 90th birthday Nov. 21 and celebrated the occasion Nov. 22 with more than 50 California relatives at her home here. On dining room table in photo are a few of the many gifts and flowers she received.

For an hour late in the morning of Nov. 24, it was a question whether the performers from the Upland Fire Department and the Ontario foam-truck unit were re-enacting the explosive laundry scene from "Mister Roberts" or all of "How Green Was My Valley."

About 10:30, the firefighters were summoned hurriedly when the large "dipper" machine inside the Upland plant of Pacific Nursery Pots, 1431 W. 9th St., burst into flames and dark smoke. A dozen employees of the container factory were working about 30 feet away, but none was injured.

Upland firemen managed to keep the blaze cornered. However, the more they shot water on and into the belching "dipper," the more green enamel paint — mixed stickily with the water and paint thinner — poured out of the big, tub-like machine and out of the building itself.

Then, the foam-truck arrived from Ontario and began its eventually effective smothering action. Meanwhile, the combination of green paint and soapy, white foam gave Pacific Nursery — manufacturers of "Plantaineers" — an early Christmas look.

Plant Mgr. Joseph Navarette, definitely not in the holiday mood after the morning's developments, attributed the fire to an electrical short in the motor which operates the "dipper's" conveyor belt. He estimated that the entire conveyor assembly was badly damaged, necessitating its replacement.

Firemen predicted that close to $1,000 worth of Upland hose also will have to be replaced. Countless feet of it were coated with the paint and, when the green goo dries and the hose stiffens, well . . . scenes from "Breaking Point."

First Supervisor From Desert In 50 Years Selected For Board's Chairmanship

Chairmanship of the County Board of Supervisors for the next two years will go to Ross Dana, of Apple Valley, a poll of Board members made Nov. 23 disclosed.

The new chairman will take over Dec. 7, and it will be the first time for more than half a century that the great desert and mountain area, with more than 90 per cent of the land of the nation's biggest county, has had its representative as Board chairman.

Dana, re-elected to his second term in the June primary, is now vice-chairman. As he said Monday, "I should be chairman by rotation."

But there was the possibility that Supervisor Daniel Mikesell, who represents the West End, might dispute Dana's claim to the chairmanship. Mikesell two years ago said he felt that he should have been made chairman then, rather than Mrs. Nancy Smith, because he was half-way through his second term.

But other Supervisors disagreed, due to Mikesell being out of office between his two terms. They ruled that seniority would be decided on consecutive terms.

Mikesell said Monday he had no wish to go against the precedent set two years ago. "The Board has said what it wants," he declared, "and I'll go along with that."

Dana's place as Board chairman was made an election issue by Supervisor Paul Young, who backed the First District supervisor as the man who would become chairman if voted back into office. And Young said Monday he still felt the same way.

Mrs. Smith and S. Wesley Break also declared they felt that it was logical under the rotation system for Dana to be named.

The rotation system was started in 1962, when Mrs. Smith was elected. For many years, since 1913, it had been the practice of picking the "strong" member of the Board for chairman and keeping him in office. Under that policy, Break was chairman for eight straight years.

The "strong" member policy

Upland Woman Presides Over Legion Auxiliary

Highlighting the regular meeting of the 25th District American Legion Auxiliary at Victorville Nov. 22 was the visit of the State president, Mrs. Venice Collins, Atascadero, who was presented and introduced to the group by Mrs. Edward Fields, district president from Upland.

Mrs. Collins, in her address, expressed thanks to Mrs. Fields for her assistance and informed the group that each district president is "one of Venice's gondoliers," since that is her theme for the term.

This year, Americanism and patriotism will be stressed to the junior groups of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Collins stated that, to secure "freedom for you and I and a million other guys," we must have (1) "respect for every human being," (2) "living by the Golden Rule" and (3) "voluntary cooperation."

The national theme is "Say it With Music" and, for the foreign relations program, it was suggested that every unit have a penny march for "Tools for Training" for Costa Rica which is the country for study this year.

More than 58% of the members have paid their dues to date, and California was the top State in the nation for November with 23,048 members paid up.

The State president closed her address with thanks to the district for the lovely corsage and the miniature gondola which concealed a monetary donation presented to her, and "especially to thank God for the privilege of living in America." Mrs. Fields also presented a tiny silver gondola pin to Mrs. Collins.

Other State officers presented were Mrs. Harry Keyser, Highland unit, State first vice president; Mrs. Arthur Novell, Ontario 112, State hospital chairman for Patton Hospital; Mrs. Floyd Walker, Yucaipa 426, deputy chairman for Patton Hospital; and Mrs. Ethel Marsh, Upland, State past president.

Al Girls State chairmen were requested to get their representatives' names and applications on the State chairman as soon as possible, since there is a shortage of room compared to the schools in California. The accommodations are for the 557 girls from the junior classes of all high schools which have been represented to date and there is no more available space at the present time for additional schools unless there are schools which will not be represented this year.

At a companion meeting of Legion Posts, Michael Andrews of Needles, the young boy who saved the lives of eight persons from a burning home, was presented a medal from the district for outstanding bravery. Roy Morgan, district commander, gave the award, plus a check for $200 toward his education.

The next district meeting will be held at Redlands Unit 1 Jan. 6, at 7:30 p.m.

It's nice being the bank noted for the most service
(And the very lowest service charges!)

At Inland Bank, service is our business. We've made it our goal to provide you with banking services specially geared to the needs and wishes of local business, industry and agriculture. Locally owned, managed and staffed, these services are based on an intimate understanding of the conditions in our area. And we try to offer you more.

A good example can be seen in our schedule of charges on checking accounts. You'll find our charges considerably less than those of "chain banks." Most of these banks insist you have a minimum balance of $1,000 to write an unlimited number of checks without charge.

Not Inland Bank! If your average balance is $500, you can write unlimited checks AND PAY ABSOLUTELY NO SERVICE CHARGE! And even if your average balance is from $200 to $500, you are permitted to write from 2 to 6 checks without charge at Inland! No wonder so many of your friends and neighbors will tell you, "Inland gives you more!"

So, if you or any member of your family uses a checking account, doesn't it make better sense to bank at Inland?

Whatever banking services you require—checking or savings account, a loan for a home, home improvement, auto or personal needs, please call on us.

Pioneer "Information, Please"

Good PTA Queries Get Quick Answers

The regular meeting of Pioneer Junior High PTA was held Nov. 17.

Mrs. Ray Rietkerk, president, announced that there will be a canned food drive Dec. 14 through 18 for the Foothill Council PTA's Christmas baskets for needy families. A box will be placed in each room for contributions.

The next regular meeting will be combined with the music department's Christmas performance and art class Christmas open house Tuesday, Dec. 15, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

The program, "Information, Please," was presented by Mrs. Briscoe Root, program chairman. Shelby Forrest, principal, introduced the panel consisting of Mrs. Thomas Gibson, school board member; Mrs. Lila Clark, sixth grade teacher; Mrs. Theodore Mann, seventh grade teacher, and Lanny Farley, seventh and eighth grade teacher.

Questions were submitted prior to the meeting and asked from the audience.

Some of the questions presented and answered were:

"Why do you teach a foreign language only for one semester?" Answer: "We are experimenting with the program this year. Next year, languages will be compulsory by state law. We will probably offer languages on a year's basis."

"How will dropping P.E. affect the school program?" Answer: "It will not affect on our local level."

"What can we do as parents to promote better study habits?" Answer: "Have a quiet place, a given time and a concentrated period of study, with no interferences for the student.

"Does the average student feel it's more hopeless to compete in this day of high pressure?" Answer: "No. It is the parent's responsibility to give credit for the child's best effort, to recognize a child's individualities and praise him for his particular talents."

"Is it normal for a child of junior high age not to enjoy an outing with his parents?" Answer: "Yes. This is an age level of change in personality and rapid physcal maturity."

"Are there accelerated classes at Pioneer?" Answer: "No. Individual attention is given to the advanced child in mixed classes."

"Does a mixed class (scholastically) schedule give a better chance for lower grade students in the same class?" Answer: "No."

Central PTA Hears Talk On Respect

Mrs. William Nunes, president of the Central School PTA, presided over the regular monthly meeting held Nov. 19 in the school cafetorium.

The flag salute was led by Cub Pack 651. Mrs. William Long read the inspirational thought for the evening.

The Boy Scout and Cub Scout charters were presented by Mrs. E. H. (Bud) Garade, Scout Commissioner.

The guest speaker of the meeting was Merwyn E. Williams who is in private practice in counselling and psychotherapy in Upland.

Williams' topic was "Mutual Respect Between Parents and Children." Some points of interest touched on by the speaker were — lack of respect by parents frustrates children, to reach others' needs you must have mutual respect, the No. 1 health problem in the nation is mental health, one out of every 10 will spend some time in a mental hospital.

Williams answered several questions from the floor, and, at the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by mothers of first graders.

At UHS Awards Banquet

Water Polo Questions Fail To Sink Olympian

Upland High School water poloists and their families were given a rare treat at the annual awards banquet, held in the high school cafeteria Nov. 19.

Guest speaker for the evening was Ned McIlroy, center back for the United States Olympic water polo team, which represented our country in the 1964 Olympics at Tokyo.

Letters and certificates were awarded the C, B and varsity poloists from UHS. The team captains were chosen by ballot of the individual squads, and each of them received medals.

The C captain was Bill Weigang, the B captain was Mitch Pomeroy, and the varsity captain was Bob Likins.

The teams also voted for most valuable player awards —trophies—and Weigang received the C award, Jeff Whitaker and Bill Palmer each received B awards after the voting ended in a tie, and Jeff Weber was awarded the varsity trophy.

Following the award presentations, Varsity Coach Jim Stewart introduced McIlroy. The Olympic team member described his Olympic experiences and then answered the myriad questions from the assemblage.

Upon conclusion of the question period, movies of the water polo games played in Tokyo were shown by Roy Wilkes, La Puente High School water polo coach, who spent 10 days watching the Olympic contests.

As Moms, Dads Watched

It Was A 24-18 Thriller, But Braves Dropped Finale

By TOM ABBOTT

The Alta Loma Braves ended their football season on a bad note last Frday when they lost to the Gladstone Gladiators, 24 to 18, before a Mom's and Dad's Night crowd.

Dean Bentley threw three touchdown passes for the losers, connecting with Don Hadley, Ron Rasmussen and Doug Watford. The pass to Rasmussen was a tackle-eligible play in which Ron dragged three tacklers into the end zone.

Dennis Watford came up with the "play of the year" when he intercepted a pass and raced 70 yards behind the vicious blocking of Ray Romo, Tom Abbott and Rich Bare. This play set up Ron's score and tied the game at 12-12 at intermission.

Dennis Watford was the Braves' leading ground gainer, picking up 83 yards, and for his outstanding effort he was selected as player of the week.

Gladstone had yielded only an aberage of seven points per game before facing the Braves, and thus lost the fewest-points-scored-on title to Bloomington, which defeated Sierra Vista, 13 to 6, to win the league title and go onto CIF.

The Bee team defeated Gladstone, 12 to 0, to finish in the runner-up spot to South Hills in the Bee Conference race. Ruban Fuentez scored both touchdowns to push his point total to 30 for the season and capture the Braves' scoring title.

The Bee squad scored 91 points during the season and yielded only 51 to the opposition. They finished the season with a 4-3-1 record. Their league record was 4 and 2 for the year.

Cage Slate At Chaffey

Basketball season was to be inaugurated at Chaffey College at 8 Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, when Head Coach Barney Newlee was scheduled to send his 1964-65 Panther cagers into action against the Alumni on the Alta Loma hardwoods.

Leading this year's young and inexperienced edition are veterans Jess Evans and Mike Micallef, back from the 1963-64 team which notched a 9-9 Eastern Conference record and a fifth-place finish.

Evans, who is a forward scaling 6'4", is expected to provide the primary scoring and rebounding strength for the Panthers, while Micallef, who is a guard standing 6'3", possesses good speed and appears to be the top backcourt player.

Others in the current squad, which numbers 15, who have seen previous action for the Red and White, are guard Stan Smith (6'0") and forward Earl Grizzle (6'3"), both members of last season's contingent, and Mike Ford (6'1") and Mike Malony (5'10"), each a guard returnee from the 1962-63 quintet.

Newcomers vying for spots on the starting unit are: centers, Jerry Smith (Corona, 6'6"), Bob Molenkamp (Redlands, 6'5"); and Jim Clarke (Hemet, 6'3"); forwards, Rollie Fingers (Upland, 6'3"), Ron Walker (Fontana, 6'3") and Ed Dalla Rosa (Upland, 6'3"); and guards, Dick Thoma (Upland, 6'2"), Charles Hickey (Fontana, 5'11") and Tom Staub (Claremont, 5'9").

Supervisors-

kept the chairmanship in the four southern districts for about 50 years, and this is the first time a First District representative has been available for a selection by rotation.

The historic change is due to take place shortly after the start of the Dec. 7 session. The date is set for organization of the new Supervisors' group by the charter, due to the election of three members in the June primary. They were Dana, Break and Mrs. Smith.

The next reorganization will take place at the first meeting in December, 1966, when the posts now held by Mikesell and Young will be filled.

The duties of chairman are principally to preside at meetings, act as the county's chief executive officer and represent the county at public and private functions. The chairman is supposed to be present at the county's headquarters every working day.

At one time, there was $4,000 extra in salary for being chairman. But this has now been whittled down to a mere $500 annually. The salary is $10,500, compared with the $10,000 to which other Supervisors' pay has been boosted in the last two years.

Zoning-

for C-2 zoning, which allows heavy business use of the land. The strip on the east boundary, from Base Line back, should be studied for zoning for professional office buildings, Mikesell ordered.

This procedure is required by State law, for the Commission must be given time for a second study of any recommendation that the Supervisors plan to over-ride. The report is expected back by next week's Suprvisors' meeting.

No sooner is football over than basketball starts at Upland High School. Upland's first game of the year will be next Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 1, against Alta Loma at the Highlander gym. Starting time is 3:15 and admission is free.

Last year, when the two teams met for the first time, the Highlanders defeated the Braves, 68-55. However, since then, the Braves have gotten more experience and ended their season as runners-up in the CIF Class A baskeball championships.

Upland has lost four of its five starters from last year, with only Jean LaFond returning to the starting line-up. A possible starting quintet for the Highlanders would be LaFond, Ken Wilcox, Greg FaGaines, Bob Walton, and Bob Dier.

Wilcox and Walton were on the varsity second string last year, FaGaines was on the junior varsity first string and Dier was on the Bee first string. Rounding out the team are Gil Perez, Don Fant, Tom Shoji, Bill Walk, Bob Miller, Dave Nelson, Jim Smith, Don Wilcox, Mike Magruder, Don Masluk and Ken Whitten.

Coach Jerry Kehr feels that Upland will have a good team this year and hopes for a league championship are high. As in the past, Kehr will emphasize defense as the way to victory. Last year, the Highlanders were second only to Chino in defensive play.

A disastrous football season came to a close last Friday when Upland lost to Garey, 28-7. The only score for the Highlanders came on a six-yard pass from quarterback Rusty Stiffler to Tom Shoji. Tom Young kicked the extra point.

Injuries took their toll during the season and were the major reason for the Highlander downfall. Head Coach Hoyt Baker was counting heavily on the services of Don Wilcox at quarterback; however, the junior letterman was out for the season with a foot injury. During the season Baker also lost most of his starting backfield.

Next year, Baker can look forward to the return of Jim Smith, Tom Shoji and Wilcox in the backfield, with Paul Morgan and Allen Jacobic in the line.

The varsity will hold its annual awards night Thursday, Dec. 3, and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Brave Five Looks Like A 'Winner'

Basketball starts next week for Alta Loma High School, with the Braves facing their crosstown rival Upland in the Highlander Gym at 3:15 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 1.

The squad looks like "another winner" this year, with five out of the six top players returning.

Gary Conner injured his knee in football and it is a queston mark whether or not he will be able to play. The starting five probably will consist of Andy Arner, Steve Kokor, Fred Wiling, John Morris and Fred Weldon.

Coach Gus Rischer expects to carry a larger squad this year, suiting up 15 players per game. Ed Gibson, By Wilding, Tim Bailey and Dan Solters are returnees from last year's championship squad.

The coach expects four or five boys from the football squad, but so far only Tom Abbott has made an appearance. Ron Millet, Greg Campbell and Ken Hamlington have come up from the Bee squad, with Venny Asebedo, a first-year man, roundng out the squad.

Little Loop Picks Slate For 1965

Meeing Nov. 23 at Magnolia Elementary School, directors of the Foothill Little League heard Rick Hutton, players agent, predict that 1965 will see the largest turnout for spring tryouts in loop history.

James E. Potts was elected president for the coming year, with Dr. Robert D. Lawson chosen vice president and Mrs. Alyce Potts named secretary.

Kenneth FaGaines, who gave the annual treasurers report, accepted re-election to his office, while Hutton was selected again as players agent.

The newly formed board, which will meet shortly after the first of the year, was completed with the picking of Mrs. Donna McLauchlin as president of the womens auxiliary and Manley Cole as insurance agent.

Dr. Gordon Scott, outgoing president, presided at the session.

UHS Harriers Get Second Win

Coach Paul White's Upland Harriers won their second meet of the year Nov. 13 when they defeated Montclair on the Upland track, 22-33.

Rick Adams placed first, with a timing of 10:18 for the two-mile course, with Bob Eckhardt, second (10:32); Bill Nare, fourth; and Mike Eastin, fifth.

The junior varsity meet was won by the Cavaliers, 20-35, while the Highlanders won the frosh-soph meet with a perfect 15-48 score.

WIGNALL AWARD

Rex Wignall of Upland, a freshman at Whitman College in Walla Walla, Wash., is the only member of the school's cross counry squad to win a first-year award for his performance this fall.

FESTIVE HOLIDAY NOTE(S) filled the air at the Upland home of Mrs. Robert G. Beloud (left) Nov. 18, when noted pianist Wilbur Chenoweth played a number of spirited renditions at a Symphony Preview meeting and luncheon of the Foothill Philharmonic Committee. Seven provisional members for 1964-65 were honored, including Dr. Hazel E. Morgan (right) of Claremont.

AFS Seeks Homes For '65 Students

Mrs. Robert Spencer and Mrs. Elwood Chapman, American Field Service home-finding chairmen, are busy locating homes for next year's AFS students, they announced at a recent meeting of the local AFS committee. Any parents who would be interested are urged to contact either chairman at YU 6-7420 or YU 6-5344.

During the business session conducted by Mrs. J. E. Reynolds, president, announcement was made of the election of a new National AFS director, Arthur Howe, Jr., who has been a vice-president in the national organization since 1962 and has been active in AFS work since 1942.

Mrs. Reynolds told the group that this year more students will come to the United States from the Far East and more American students will go there than ever before.

Kleo Martin, permanent Chaffey Union High School faculty AFS representative announced that the new chairman of the AFS Americans Abroad Selection Committee for next year is Miss Ruth Weber. Mrs. Robert Jensen, Americans Abroad chairman, suggested that a meeting be set up in the spring with interested students and their parents, so that the program could be explained in detail before students apply.

Mrs. Frank Dolinski reported on the program of Gerardo Mendez and said that he was scheduled to attend a day at Arrowhead with all AFS students in the area.

Mrs. Jensen announced the names of the four students selected for Americans Abroad: Steven Kohls, Susan Hecht, Rosemary Bohen and Kathy Kloepfer.

Phillis Brashear reported on the Student AFS Club and asked permission to set up a separate account at the book store. She said the club was very interested in sponsoring an activity for area AFS students.

Mrs. Reynolds said that January and March were open. According to policy, only one activity may be scheduled for a given mother. A suggestion was made that AFS Christmas cards left from two years ago be given to the student club to sell as a fund-raising project.

The president thanked Mrs. Arnold Anderson for opening her home for the AFS reception honoring Mendez last month. A letter was read from the New York AFS Office asking that Chaffey accept two AFS students if possible. The matter was discussed. The availability of homes is the main factor, it was thought.

Mrs. Jensen reported on a personal visit to the AFS New York Headquarters, while on a recent business trip there with her husband. She described the block-long building and what she was able to learn about procedures in selecting candidates for AFS. She said she had asked for further information about accounting and financing, to be mailed to her, and would report on that later.

Mrs. Reynolds reminded members of the Chaffey Wives AFS Benefit Fashion Show Saturday and adjourned the meeting. Attending were: Kleo Martin, Mrs. Frank Dolinski, Mrs. Joseph Hecht, Mrs. Lewis Davis, Mrs. Robert Spencer, Mrs. John Plasman, Mrs. Elwood Chapman, Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Mrs. Rober Jensen, Mrs. Eugene Bassett, Miss Phyllis Brashear and Mrs. Reynolds.

'Cinderella' Band Wins Without Gold Sneakers!

Another Alta Loma High School "Cinderella" — the marching band — has won two trophies in its first two tries at competition.

And the 45 members of the small group were dressed in blue work pants, white shirts and bow ties—purchased by the members themselves, at $8.32 each, complete.

Melvin Corner, band director, said, "It is fantastic that these kids should win. We have no experience in competition, and no uniforms!"

On Nob. 14, the band competed in the Hawthrone Band Review, one of the five major band events in Southern California, and came home with a third-place trophy.

A first-place trophy in its division was earned at the Chaffey Invitational Tournament of Bands last month. The band has also appeared in the Los Angeles Coliseum. Next on its schedule is the Huntington Beach Parade, Dec. 4.

"Cinderella" is working hard these days to convert the no-uniform pumpkin into a golden coach. Each band member is canvassing the community, selling subscriptions to most of the popular magazines. The subscription prices are the standard ones for the magazines.

Persons wishing to take advantage of renewal or special price offer may do so during the sales campaign, and the band will still realize a profit. According to Corner, most of the popular magazines are listed with the plan.

He asked that persons interested in subscriptions through the band, if not contacted by band members, call Alta Loma High School and leave their name and telephone number at the homes.

Also hustling to earn money for special equipment is the choral group, sonsored by Don Bowers. The students are selling candy bars with special ALHS wrappers to earn money for choir robes and specialized music arrangements.

Both campaigns will continue for two weeks.

How much safety do you want for your money?

Financial safety comes in all shapes and sizes. There are safe investments and risky investments—and ones that are in between. Depending upon how much risk you want to take, your money can be invested in a variety of ways.

Your savings, however, are another thing. This is money you do not want to risk—no matter how safe the investment appears. This is money you want to be able to count on at all times and under all conditions. And when you want your money that safe and that available—you want it in the bank.

AN EDITORIAL

'Thanks' In Thanksgiving? Yes, And For Many Reasons

In an era that all-too-often is marked by cynicism and doubt, we frequently hear Americans question the reason for including "thanks" in Thanksgiving. Their line of thinking is familiar. "Thanks, but no thanks" . . . or the even more hard-boiled, "Thanks for what?"

The Foothill area is no exception. We have members of the same breed of not-so-hep cats here. For that reason, THE NEWS thought it might be a good idea — at Thanksgiving time, 1964 — to remind folks of just 10 of countless reasons they have to give thanks.

1. As official statistics showed, the majority of local voters cast their ballots for the also-ran in the Presidential election earlier this month. Yet, ALL of our voters can be thankful. They at least had a choice—a choice between two leaders, who regardless of political differences, were both pledged to principles of peace and prosperity.

2. In Maine today, with the frost completely obliterating the proverbial pumpkin, folks already are setting their sights on a winter vacation in Arizona. And in Florida, the natives are eyeing the ski slopes of Colorado. Here in our valley, where desert sun and mountain snow are minutes apart, we can be mighty thankful for the wonderfully varied place in which we live.

3. Those California Freeways, you may sigh, are strictly for the birds. Well, they're not, really. They're jammed and busy and bothersome, because they're keeping fast-paced motorists off our municipal streets, away from our growing communities and prospering people. So give thanks—for the Freeways.

4. That Upland City Council is wacky or beautiful, depending on your point of view — depending, perhaps, on where you wanted the Civic Center. It was a difficult decision, as indicated by the final 3-2 site-setting vote. Many Council decisions are equally tough, or tougher. Be thankful you have five conscientious citizens who, for little pay and lots of grief, are willing to wrestle long and hard with challenging Upland problems.

5. Regarding that long-planned, long-needed Civic Center, the downtown merchants fought for it — and businessmen out on Foothill Boulevard also sought it. They're competitors. And we should be glad of it, for they represent our American system — our backbone — of free commercial enterprise.

6. The Foothill's quick, continued growth has resulted in a population boom which, in turn, has swelled our school enrollment. That means more school facilities, double shifts, other inconveniences . . . and higher taxes. But there's still reason to feel thankful. ALL of our youngsters will be afforded an educational opportunity, administered in grade-A fashion.

7. Mothers and PTA groups quite naturally believe each active intersection near our schools rates a traffic signal, a police guard and/or extra-special precautions. Law enforcers are studying the situation carefully, hopeful they can provide safe and adequate coverage without loss of lives or serious injuries as the City expands. Give thanks that we have such men on our police forces — men who deserve praise for helping to keep our crime rate down.

8. Prayers for our individual health and happiness are appropriate at Thanksgiving time, as are prayers for the sick and less fortunate who deserve welfare blessings. We can be glad, too that our County Grand Jury is maintaining a vigil and rounding up the chiselers who have been taking from the mouths of others.

9. Be thankful that THE NEWS is free to express its opinions and viewpoints, whether you endorse them or not. If you disagree, remember you are entitled to "space" in our Letters to the Editor column. Khrushchev probably didn't agree with Pravda's editorial policy the day he got the axe in Russia, but nobody ever will read a letter from him in the black-and-white-and-Red-all-over newspaper — even if the deposed leader remains well enough to write.

10. Finally, we have our religious preferences, as freedom-lovers do everywhere.

Yet, at this time for giving thanks, we can point with pride to the Union Thanksgiving Service — an inspiring joint effort at the First Presbyterian Church.

It's one of many reasons to count your blessings, and THE NEWS thinks its readers — this time, anyhow— will agree wholeheartedly!

OFF BEAT

With Ace Bushnell

The blossoming community of Cucamonga is much more colorful than its grapes, and not merely because Jack Benny put it on the map. It was around, making history, long before Benny—and not many communities can support that boast.

As a matter of fact, Abraham Lincoln signed the papers that gave Cucamonga a post office. A centennial recently was celebrated as only wine makers can celebrate, thereby toping Benny's 39 by a goodly number of years.

Pardon my historical digression, but I'm loaded with lore —not wine—after my baptismal at last week's annual dinner gathering of the Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce. Bill Reckert, a C of C secretary who really enjoys his job, provided me with much of the fill-in.

For instance, the name "Cucamonga" is an Indian me - hand - down, meaning "Land of Running Waters" or maybe, just maybe, meaning "lewd woman." Nobody is absolutely certain about the derivation, Reckart smiled, but it's one or the other. Present-day Cucamonga is reputed to have an extremely well-run water system; yet, one can't help wonder what all those eastern industrialists are primarily interested in.

Benny's great contribution to Cucamonga's current eminence hasn't been forgotten, according to the Chamber secretary. While Anaheim and Azusa have revoked the comedian's honorary mayorship of their municipalities, he has never been defrocked by "Cuc-a-mong-a."

Another grape - dominated celebration will be very much in order when the Cucamonga Times building, once the community's first bank, is demolished to permit the widening of Archibald Avenue, and the front-door plaque is presented to Benny as a symbol of his "original vault."

The C of C participants were in a festive mood for their yearly conclave, and for several substantial reasons. Four of them were Wisconsin Can, Martin - Marietta, Rainbow Crafts and Abitibi, all attracted to Cucamonga terrain within the tenure of the '64 Board of Directors. A fifth, surely, was the baked potato (with cheese sauce and chives) served to each diner. Iowa never had it so good, or so big, and I suspect we owe it all to host Frank Penn, owner-manager of The Magic Lamp as well as an effervescent member of the Chamber inner circle.

Speaking of the aforementioned industrial newcomers to the local scene, Cal Shores announced, with understandable enthusiasm, that Ontario, Upland—and CUCAMONGA—will be linked inseparably in a come-hither, full-page ad in The Wall Street Journal. "Look for it in about 60 days," he chirped. "It should help us a lot!"

In like vein, Leon Lucas extolled the virtues of a brochure being spread far and wide by the Santa Fe Railroad. He told me the pamphlet pinpoints promising spots for development along the line. In California, the two locations spelled out in beautiful black-and-white are Richmond up north — and you-guessed-it down here.

Lucas, a realtor who apparently has a discerning eye for more than bontiful land, informed the group that plans are "shaping up" — I believe those were his words — for the forthcoming selection of "Miss Cucamonga." At the urging of Postmaster Tony Blatnick, father of the '62 winner, Lucas suggested that 'my wife and the other women handle it.' Norman Hixson, a realist, noted that "they might look at the whole thing from an entirely different angle."

Even the pacifier, Reckert reminded the clan that "Miss Cucamonga" must be more than the village beauty—she must be endowed with "the ability to meet" and other personality attributes in order to compete for queen honors on the high plane of the National Orange Show next March.

"But she ought to be a Cucamonga girl," Reckert asserted. Then, in what may go down as the understatement of the year, he added, "Other communities have run into minor publicity problems when they've had girls who weren't from their area."

Getting down to pressing business, the Chamber bigwigs appointed Bill Gundry to see that Christmas decorations adorn Cucamonga forthwith. Gundry accepted the task, with the important provision that "they listen to me this time." Explaining, the jolly old soul—truly a Sant's Santa —said he tried to convince those in charge of hanging last year's 3-by-60-foot Grape Festival banner across Foothill Boulevard that they should use cable, not rope. They paid him no heed.

"The winds came, and then the slack in the rope came," Gundry lamented. "And then one of those big deisels came barreling down Foothill—and our banner was down." The membership granted Gundry a free hand with the cable.

It was indeed a banner year for Cucamonga, and for Buster Filpi, ubiquituous president of the District C of C. Asked how it had come to pass, the fine progress that was achieved in '64, Filpi offered his simple formula: "I was lucky. I was successful, that's all."

The special assessment ordinance for park development should be passed so "new construction will help foot the park bill.

Upland now has half a dozen SITES already purchased for use because of the expanding growth. Curren residens have been paying for this for some years now.

It's only fair that the newcomers help pay por these parks and heir DEVELOPMENT.

Rotary presented a plaque to Jarvis Leman for being secretary-treasurer for 10 years. Also noted was his service as a former City Councilman and on the Upland School Distric Board.

A dinner-dance Saturday was in Jay's honor, a deserved accolade.

Councilmen are being asked for an "exclusive" franchise for a city bus system. If two bus companies want in, then both should have the right.

At least this is private enterprise, and not a socialistic, monopolistic system such as Upland has for garbage and trash collection.

With Norton being closed, it sure is a riot to read how Dyal shoves off answers to Sheppard, who can't be reached. Quimby says adjustment was long expected. Even an Ontario newspaper now says there was "boondoggling" . . .

Frankly, the view from here is hilarious . . . considering past years positons, statements, and pre-election stands.

At the recent Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce annual dinner, Harold Blatz, loudest Democratic voice in the organization, suggested that a wire be fired to Washington, protesting the Norton phase-out.

"No need to send it that far," Bill Gundry quipped. "The White House is in Texas now!"

The rigid social custom at high school date dances is rather pathetic.

A boy and girl NEVER, but NEVER, dance with anyone but each other. Even double-daters ignore the common courtesy of one exchange dance. Such parties miss the fun of even one mix-up dance.

At this early age, "social security" is hardly worth the loss of widened acquaintenceship, with both sexes maturing by at least dancing with another person.

No wonder the divorce rate keeps going up.

As we said, it's pathetic! And a shame to miss all the fun!

HONESTY COUNTS

To the Editor:

Your comment on my letter concerning the accuracy of the registration rolls would be funny, if it wasn't so sad.

With all due respect to Mrs. (Eleanor) Felton, who does a fantastic job, the cleaning up of changes in registrations in the various precincts is strictly hit and miss.

After each election, a corrected list is returned to the County. Time after time the names that were crossed off by us find their way back on our rolls. We still recall the name of one of our voters whose name kept showing up year after year, when he had been dead for about 10!

This year, one of our residents re-registered because he wanted to change his party designation. Guess what! His name showed up twice on our rolls. No wonder they are able to vote for the DEAD and MOVED AWAY voters in some of those less-than-honest precincts in certain other states!

It isn't necessary for you to print this letter; just wanted you to understand that your rejoinder to my original letter was not valid.

Jane A. Leffler
Secretary,
M. Baldy Chamber of Commerce

P.S.—Next election, telephone US and we'll give you the straight scoop!

(Ed. Note—We like your spirit, so just can't resist!)

Nisbet Predicts Budget Woes

Rough 1965 General Session Could Run Until September

By EUGENE NISBET
State Senator
San Bernardino County

Now that the bruises resulting from the recent General Election are beginning to fade, it is possible to do some thinking about the shape of the forthcoming 1965 general session. It's a little hard to realize, but in only a few short weeks we will be back in Sacramento, settling ourselves into harness again for the long pull.

All observers agree that the coming session looks like the roughest in many years. One reputable commentator has predicted that the session is likely to run into nine months —that is, not adjourn until sometime in September.

This prediction assumes, of course, that the 1965-66 state budget will not be passed in the general session, but that t will be forced into a special meeting, as has happened the last few times.

The new budget will obviously be a primary issue. Coming close to the $4 billion mark, the spending program will be outranked by only two others in the world, those of the U.S. Government and of the City of New York.

While the Governor has announced that he will not recommend any new services, and no expansions except those necessitated by workload growth, we are still confronted by the basic problem of paying for the increased support of public schools authorized at our last sessions.

I have written recently in this column about the certainty that new state revenues will be needed to keep the budget in balance, and about the many ideas for sources of additional funds which are being tossed bout. I referred to the studies being conducted by both the Senate and Assembly Committees on Revenue and Taxation.

Since I wrote, the total "take" from new taxes being suggested has been increased to more than $300 million annually, then to $600 million. One tax expert said that reference to such totals is dangerous, because it tempts local agencies such as school districts to demand more funds from state government.

One "must" subject is certain to cut across all others. That is reapportionment of the Senate along population lines. Though California was not mentioned in any of the U.S. Supreme Court decisions of last June on this matter, it now seems a foregone conclusion that some sort of reapportionment legislation must be enacted at the coming session.

So many other states are being compelled to redistrict their Senates almost immediately that chances of securing Congressional approval of a constitutional amendment to preserve our "federal" system are fading fast.

Another important and controversial field which will receive much attention is social insurance. Both our state unemployment insurance and disability insurance systems are in serious financial difficulties.

At present, UI benefit payments and annual revenues from employer taxes just about balance, at $500 million. But the reserve, at $657 million, represents only about 4 per cent of taxable payroll, regarded as dangerously low. Yet labor organizations have announced that they will press for extension of coverage to agricultural and government workers, and for liberalized benefits.

The disability fund is in even worse shape. The reserve is expected to have a deficit of more than $6 million by the end of January, $35 million by April, which must be made up by borrowing. Yet total benefit payments are exceeding income by some $35 million per year. There is still pressure for increased benefits with no increase in worker taxes, so the situation is really tough.

'Not Just Campaign . . A Crusade'

GOP Women Conduct Rally, Hear Urgent Call-To-Arms

"It's not just a campaign, it's a crusade — and we're in it for life," Mrs. Douglas Yarbrough, president of the Southern Division of Federated Republican Women, told members of Chaffey Community Republican Women at a luncheon meeting Nov. 18 at Elton's Restaurant in Upland.

Mrs. Yarbrough was quoting a statement made by Bill Henry, Los Angeles Times correspondent, when he addressed the Republican Federated Women in Washington, D.C. earlier this year.

Addressing the group on the theme, "What Do We Do Now," Mrs. Yarbrough gave a number of specific suggestions. "This is a year to rebuild," she told them, "We must begin with Congress; we must keep the men we have there and send more."

"This year," she continued, "the Republican Party must arrive at a direction and the means to achieve that direction. High principles and convictions are not enough. We must be realistic and practical, and we must reach all the people."

"So," she concluded, "let's get about it and start today!"

Mrs. J. B. McCarter, CCRW president, welcomed members, introduced guests and extended special greetings to Mrs. James Christensen. Pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. R. Fred Price. Invocation was given by the president.

Mrs. Bruce Claflin presented the report of the nominating committee and the following slate of officers was unanimously elected: president, Mrs. C. E. Mitchell; first vice-president, Mrs. E. J. Close Jr.; second vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Parker; recording secretary, Mrs. William Jones; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Plasman; and treasurer, Mrs. A. S. Alderfer.

Mrs. McCarter invited all members to be delegates to the County Convention Dec. 11 at the Masonic Hall in San Bernardino, and asked members to place reservations with Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Lavon Phillips reported a total membership of 477 and presented jeweled pins to six women who had brought in 10 new members this year. They are: Mrs. Donald Bureson, Mrs. A. D. Bachtel, Mrs. Paul Cushing, Jr., Mrs. Earl Riggs, Mrs. McCarter and Mrs. Phillips.

Mrs. Riggs, who was unable to be present, also received a gift from the National Federated Republican Women for the increase of 300 new members over a two-year period while she was membership chairman. Miss Grace Siemon assisted her in the effort by mailing letters to every Republican woman in Ontario and Upland.

Jeweled flag pins also were presented to eight members for their outstanding service in the recent campaign. They are: Mrs. Thomas Parker, county co-chairman for Goldwater-Miller; Mrs. Robert Walker, county precinct chairman and assembly district chairman for George Murphy; Mrs. Ray Wallin, manager of Upland Headquarters; Mrs. James Collings and Miss Siemon, Upland precinct co-chairmen; Mrs. Donald Shipley, Ontario precinct chairman; Mrs. Riggs and Mrs. J. R. McRill, Ontario Headquarters.

Mrs. Claflin, parliamentarian, gave the first reading of a proposed change in by-laws. Mrs. Mitchell, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Yarbrough.

A contest for a silver-covered dish and silver bowl was conducted by Mrs. Burgeson and Mrs. Close. Mrs. Claflin and Mrs. Yarbrough won the silver dishes.

Mrs. McCarter concluded the meeting by reminding members of the convention Dec. 11. She said there would be no meeting in December but there will be Jan. 20. Dr. Gaylord Parkinson, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee will be the speaker.

Baldy Tour Of 3 Homes Next Week

The annual Mt. Baldy Home Tour will be conducted from 7 to 9 p.m. Dec. 2 and from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Dec. 3.

As guests wend their way through the tour, they will be greeted by a 60-foot lighted Christmas tree. Just beyond this point, they will be met by Boy Scouts who will direct them to the tour homes.

There are three homes this year — E. G. Parlee on Bear Drive, Robert Abbey on Mt. Baldy Road and Mrs. Vida Sloan of Ice House Canyon. All are very different as well as interesting.

Mt. Baldy Community Club members, under the direction of their home tour chairman, Mrs. Larry Sos, have some surprises in store for guests at the Buckhorn Lodge Annex. There they will find many decoration and gift ideas, while tea, coffee and other refreshments are being served.

Tickets may be obtained at all four homes, or by calling YU 2-5294 for reservations and information. A donation of $1 is asked, with proceeds going to a philanthropic fund.

Redeemer Church Offering Special Holiday Service

Redeemer Lutheran Church of Ontario wll hold a special service of Thanksgiving at the church at 920 W. 6th St. at 9 o'clock Thanksgiving morn. The sermon will be given by the pastor of Redeemer Church, the Rev. Lawrence P. Rudolph. His message wll be on the theme, "Giving Thanks Always."

The Redeemer Church Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Rudolph, will sing Gordon Young's "Now Let Us All Praise God and Sing." As a climax to the worship service, the congregation will sing "America the Beautiful" with the words revised for the distinctively Christian worshipper.

Mrs. Hayes was born May 2, 1898, in Rocheser, New Hampshire. She came to California in 1928 and first resided in Banning. In 1930 she moved to Pasadena, where she lived until moving to Pomona in 1953. She was a member of the Night Owls Club.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Barmakian of Mt. Baldy, and three grandchildren, Valerie, David Leon and Bruce Burr Barmakian, all of Mt. Baldy.

Graveside services were held Nov. 24 in Oakdale Memorial Park, Glendora, where interment was made at the side of her husband, Claude Hayes, who died in 1956. The Rev. W. A. Warner of the First Baptist Church officiated and Todd Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

Sweet Tooth Would Help Candy Sales

In 1910, an American physician, Dr. Luther Gulick, and his wife founded the Camp Fire Girls.

The main purpose of the organization was to develop girls to be womanly . . . to develop sound minds and bodies with which to serve their families and the community.

Today, more than half a century later, these aims are still part of the Camp Fire Girls program, with girls performing many services at home and in the neighborhood. Helping to finance some of these activities is money coming from the sale of chocolate mints and assorted creams.

During the Camp Fire Girls' candy sale from Nov. 20 through Dec. 7, the public will have an opportunity to share in the services rendered. By purchasing a box of chocolates, householders will be helping Camp Fire Girls to carry out some of their community service missions.

You may be contacted by a girl from any of the four program levels of Camp Fire Girls of the Mt. San Antonio Council. Whichever girl you meet . . . buy a box or two of chocolates.
